

PATRICK FOX

Vocalist | Songwriter | Composer

Biography

I am a session and live vocalist, songwriter, and composer based in the Midlands, UK. My vocals are gravelly and raw, and they are complemented by a songwriting style that is both cathartic and melancholic. I primarily enjoy composing music for big vocals - humanity's first musical instrument.

I am also currently a BA Honours Popular Music student at the University of Northampton as well as working towards ABRSM Grade 8 Vocals.
